A letter from one recipient family:

"Thank you! We really - me and my husband - appreciate the kindness of your donation to our account. It means a lot to us since we took on the responsibility to raise our two grandchildren, and we want to do our best for them.

Thank you again and God Bless You!"

And a plea from another:

"Are there any options for a family like ours? We are parenting our niece and nephew. They've lived with us off and on for years because of their mother's ongoing problems with drugs and alcohol. We have finally gotten permanent guardianship and thought it would help...I suppose it has...but it isn't enough. We think Calvary would provide the structure our nephew needs (before he gets into big trouble), but the problem is my husband and I are just normal working people.

Over the years (without guardianship) we couldn't put the kids on our insurance so spent a lot of our savings on therapy and medical care. Then the legal expense of getting permanent guardianship almost did us in financially. I don't mean to write a sob story...just the facts. So back to our original question: are there any options for families like ours? We will pay every dime we can...we just aren't sure we have enough years left to pay all the dimes. And our nephew needs help now." A Caring Aunt

Your Good Samaritan Gift Will Help...

Next to leaving their children at Calvary Academy and going home alone, parents tell us that the financial burden is hardest. And yet years later, the only regret many parents have is not the cost, but rather they wish they had sent their child sooner.

Families are willing to make great sacrifices for their “lost” child. Yet some have little left to sacrifice...especially families with a single parent, families who have exhausted their resources looking for help over many years and families where extended family members - such as grandparents - have accepted the responsibility of raising their grandchildren, nieces or nephews, etc....

“It is our goal to accept every lost lamb into the program at Calvary Academy Ministries regardless of financial means. That’s why we have initiated The Good Samaritan Fund. Thank you for your help.”

Bob Wasser, President of Calvary Academy Ministries Foundation and one of the Founding Families for Calvary Academy

But Jesus called the children to him and said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Luke 18:16 NIV
